DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1, 2, 11, 22, 23, 32, 43, 44 and 53 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,965,926 to Shapiro et al.

As concerns claims 1, 12, 22 and 43, a method of operating a mobile terminal (column 10, line 66-column 11, line 2) having first and second communication interfaces (first and second interfaces can be the same) comprising the steps of: receiving a first component of a document (figure 7-705, 710,715,720) over a first communication channel (channel on network path from the sender to the client receiver); receiving a second component of the document over a second communication channel (figure 7; 730,735; channel on network path from server having the content to the client receiver); and combining the first and second components of the document

(740) at the mobile terminal; and displaying the first component of the document before completion of the receipt of the second component of the document (740); a screen (figure 4; PDA has screen); a local memory (column 10, line 52).

As concerns claims 2, 23 and 44, the first communication channel comprises a first bandwidth (channel inherently has a bandwidth); and the second communication channel comprises a second bandwidth (channel inherently has a bandwidth) greater than the first bandwidth (bandwidth of second channel can be greater due to less traffic or less interference from noise at a particular point in time).

As concerns claims 11, 12, 32 and 53, the first component of the document is received during a first synchronization session (705,710); and the second component of the document is received during a second synchronization session (730,735).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed June 13, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicant's amendments do not overcome the prior art of record. The limitation of a first and second interface has not been distinguished as being separate and distinct from each other, therefore they can be interpreted as being the same.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
